Fall 2009

“2 National Awards and New Gallery Representation”

This is the fifth year I have been invited to participate in the Susan K Black Foundation Annual Art Conference in Dubois, Wyoming. Again this year I was honored at the Miniature Art Show, receiving ‘First Place Other Media’ and the ‘Headwaters Art and Conference Center Purchase Prize’ for my pastel painting “Handsome Boy.”

A few days before the conference, I met my close artist friend (from Colorado) to attend the Jackson Fall Arts Festival. While visiting one of the galleries in Jackson, I was invited to show them my work which resulted in my becoming one of their gallery artists. The gallery, A Horse of a Different Color, offers a distinctive collection of contemporary American craft and fine art including paintings, ceramics, hand blown glass fiber and jewelry, and of course, you’ll always find a horse of a different color!

Honorable Mention Award at the ‘Casino’ Show

I received ‘Honorable Mention Pastel’ at the 54th Annual Kennebunk River Club ‘Casino’ Art Show, held in August for my painting ‘Top Shelf’ (at right)

Art Show and Wine Tasting at the Clown Gallery

For the month of November, I have been invited to do a solo show at the Clown Gallery, 659 US Rt.1, York, ME. All are welcome to attend the Artist’s Reception and Wine Tasting on November 13, 5-7 pm. Mark your calendars! The Clown ‘offers an eclectic mix of world class wines (specializing in wines from Italy), contemporary art, a wide selection of European antiques and artisan gifts.’

Painting Selected for Annual Dog Park Poster

September is the month for the annual ‘Best Dog-Gone Dog Show’ at the Kennebunk Dog Park. This year my painting, ‘Springtime’ (at right), was chosen to be the poster image. All proceeds benefit the Dog Park.
