Annual Open House and Paint the Port Success!

What a weekend in June!!! I still feel I am just coming up for air!!! Saturday, June 27, was Santora Fine Art's 3rd annual open house, raffle and sale. We had about 40 visitors in 4 hours and several paintings sold! Thank you to everyone that stopped by, sent wishes, purchased art, and showed their support! Adrienne Angelo, a local realtor was the winner of the raffle painting "Lone Holstein" (left). At right are a couple of views of the gallery, ready for the open house...

Sunday, June 28, was a rainy, gloomy day for 'Paint the Port,' but 50 artists persevered and painted! Some, like me, were up at the crack of dawn painting while the air was misting, before the drenching rains finally came. Others chose safer views from windows looking out at favorite locations. Many paintings sold, and great deals were had. My painting "Fogged In" (left) paid homage to the day's weather & inspired "Misty Morning."

Other News

Be sure to get your copy of the July 23 issue of the Tourist News! The cover artist is none other than yours truly! My pastel cow painting, "Did Somebody Say Hay?" will help celebrate 17th Annual Open Farm Day festivities in Maine, to be held on Sunday, July 26. See the issue for details!

Also, the official launch of 'Carol Santora: The Color of Cows' is being held in conjunction with the Annual Open Farm Day event. The fine art catalog has been popular among adults, collectors, and children alike, and is available at Santora Fine Art, and through Santora's website: www.carolsantora.com. A preview of the book is also available online. Summer gallery hours are 1-4 Monday -Thursday and by chance and appointment. Contact Carol at 207-985-2830 for a personalized copy!

There are lots of art shows on my exhibit calendar with opportunities to see my New Work in person, in addition to visiting Santora Fine Art (Summer hours 1-4 M-Th & by chance and appointment)! I will make personal appearances at the 2 Sunday 'Breakfast with the Artist' events, August and September, at the Nonantum Resort. Check the Exhibit Listings for details!
