SPECIAL EDITION CHRISTMAS 2008

Featured Art at Maine Women in the Arts Annual Prelude Art Show

This year I was invited by Maine Women in the Arts to create the cover art, Christmoose Lights, for the Annual Christmas Prelude poster & invitation.

A variety of fine art including small and large paintings, both framed and unframed will be for sale, plus prints and notecards, and a selection of fine crafts including hand-made books, scarves, jewelry, ornaments, and pottery created by member artists. The show opens Friday, December 5, 10 AM at the Masonic Lodge, Temple St., Kennebunkport. The Artists' Reception is that evening from 5-7 PM. (See Exhibits, p2, for dates/times.)

Demo Paintings...

On October 27, I was invited to demonstrate my pastel pet portrait techniques for the Saco Bay Artists group. Many members turned out for this fun and educational evening, including their 'somewhat attentive but rowdy four legged mascot, who sat in her throne and gave her usual commentary woofs!' (See the finished portrait of Gretchen at right.)

Below is the demo painting of my dog Hobo that I did at Scalawags Pet Boutique on October 18 (www.scalawagsonline.com).

Merry Woof Woof Wreath

For the last 3 years, the Brick Store Museum has asked area businesses, artists, & creative community members to decorate and donate wreaths for a display and silent auction to benefit the Museum.

The 22" twig wreath I decorated features three silver framed dog images from my original pastel paintings and includes a gift certificate for 20% off an art purchase!
